

30 cool Caribbean hideaways

From a chic new Bajan beach club to an eco retreat on St Kitts and an adults-only bolt hole on Antigua, Sue Bryant has the best places to stay

Sue Bryant | Saturday April 24 2021, 12.01am BST, The Times

A pool at Le Barthélemy, St Barts

LAUREN BENOIT

Brilliant blue sea and white sands dazzle from every angle at this sophisticated hideaway on the eastern tip of fashionable St Barts. Located on a spit between the warm Caribbean and a shallow lagoon, Le Barthélemy is sufficiently isolated for complete serenity but alluring enough to attract locals and visiting yachties, thanks to the delicate Caribbean-French fusion dishes in Aux Amis and DJ sessions at the new rooftop bar Whiskey Tango Foxtrot, which is already reckoned to be the island's most fashionable watering hole.

Details Seven nights' B&B from £3,000pp, including flights

(abercrombiekent.co.uk)